ABOUT THIS BOOK

The Official High Times Pot Smoker's Activity Book is fun for you and half your family—the half that smokes pot. Which may just be you. So this book is fun for you and whomever you decide to play some of these games with. Which, again, may just be you. Get some friends, darn it! Well anyway, it doesn't matter, just as long as you're stoned. Because that's what this book is about: being stoned. So grab a bong, a lighter, some weed, and play!

*Remember, it doesn't take a good memory to have good memories.
¡Viva marijuana!*

HOW TO

MAKE A PAPER FORTUNE TELLER

ALL YOU NEED IS A PIECE OF PAPER AND A DREAM.

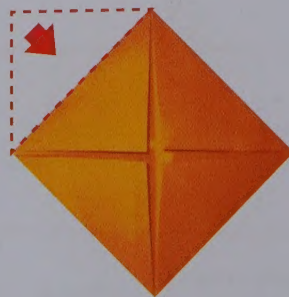

STEP 1 Take an 8.5" × 11" piece of paper and fold the bottom right corner diagonally to the opposite side of the paper to create a triangle with a small overhang of paper. Carefully tear (or cut) the overhang and fold the triangle in half, making a smaller triangle.

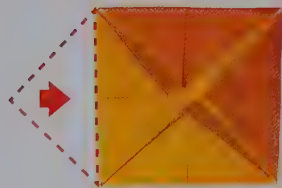

STEP 2

Unfold the paper. You now have a perfect square of paper with creases along the diagonals.

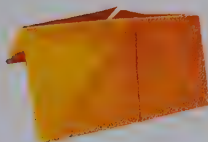

STEP 3

Fold all four corners into the middle of the square.

STEP 4 Take the folded paper and turn it over. Now do the same thing on the other side, folding all the corners into the middle.

STEP 5 Fold the paper in half along one of the middle creases and hold it shut. Work the index fingers and thumbs of both your right and left hands under the square flaps on both sides of the paper. Slowly work at it, bringing your fingers together, and the fortune teller will open!

STEP 6

Open and close the fortune teller by opening and closing your fingers.

STEP 7

Draw or write different colors on the outside of the teller's "petals."

STEP 8

Choose and mark numbers on each of the eight inside triangles of the teller.

STEP 9 Raise the four larger triangular flaps (the ones with the numbers on the outside) and write a distinct fortune under each of the eight numbers. Examples include, "You'll roll me a joint," "You'll lose all your weed," "You're gonna break a bong," and "Billy likes you."

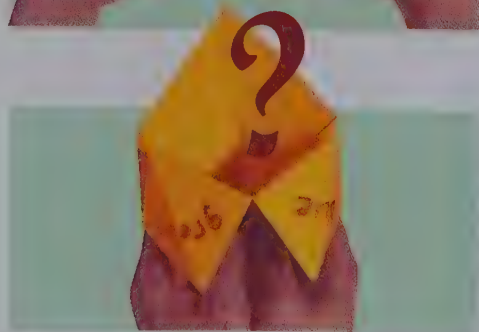

HOW TO TELL SOMEONE'S FORTUNE

STEP 1 Have the person choose one of the colors on your teller, and spell out the color they choose, opening and closing the teller one time for each letter.

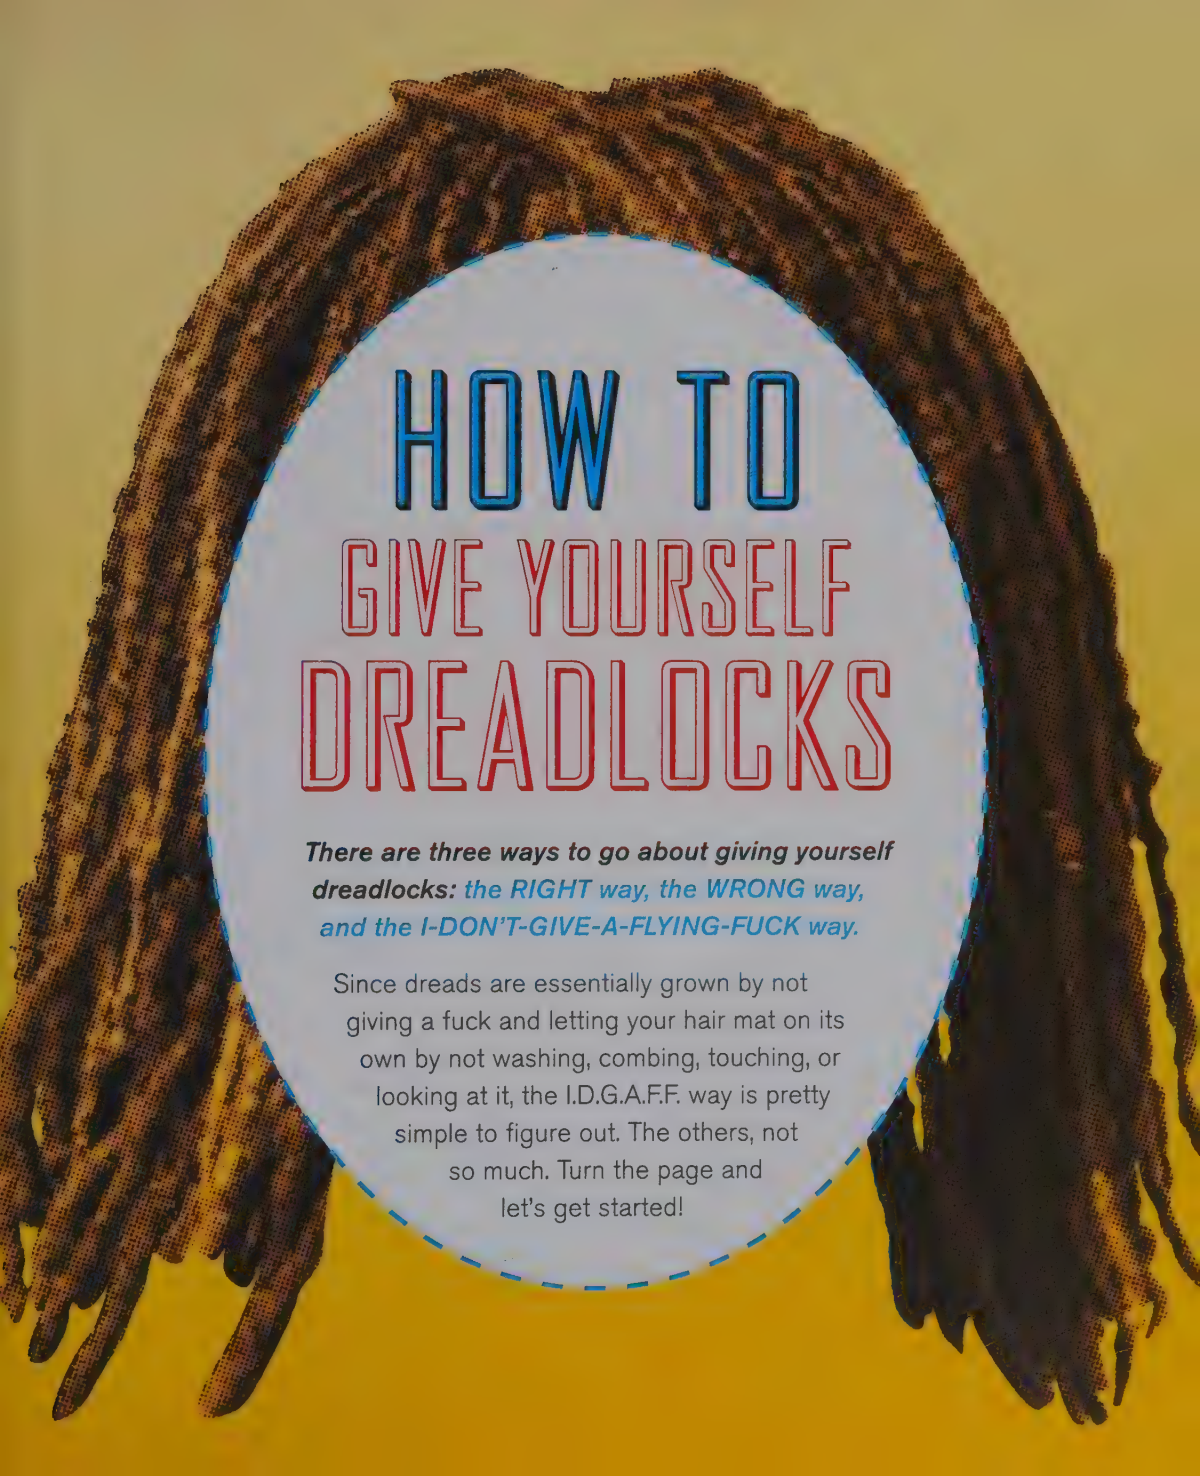

STEP 2 Next, while the teller is open to the numbers, have the person choose one of the numbers they can see inside the teller.

STEP 3 Count the number out, opening and closing the teller with each number.

STEP 4 Finally, while the teller is opened to another set of numbers, have the person pick a number, lift the selected flap, and read their corresponding fortune.

STEP 5 Tell Miss Cleo to suck it.

HOW TO GIVE YOURSELF DREADLOCKS

There are three ways to go about giving yourself dreadlocks: the RIGHT way, the WRONG way, and the I-DON'T-GIVE-A-FLYING-FUCK way.

Since dreads are essentially grown by not giving a fuck and letting your hair mat on its own by not washing, combing, touching, or looking at it, the I.D.G.A.F.F. way is pretty simple to figure out. The others, not so much. Turn the page and let's get started!

HOW TO GIVE YOURSELF DREADLOCKS:

THE RIGHT WAY

We've all seen really great dreads and we've all seen stubby, frizzy, baby-carrot dreads. One way to get them done the "right" way is to go to a salon and get a "dread perm" for $400. Or you could spend that money on weed—your choice.

If you choose to spend your money more wisely, you can give yourself dreads by using a strong comb, some rubber bands, and a tin of beeswax.

Separate your hair into small, evenly spaced areas by backcombing (or teasing) the hair, then taking a length of hair and twisting it in your fingers while adding wax, making each section into a tubelike shape. Leave the hair like this, twisting and reapplying wax each day until the sections of hair begin to mat on their own. Add patchouli, shells, and beads to taste.

If you have short hair, or are too lazy to wax and roll, simply braid the hair in sections and tie rubber bands at both ends of the braids. Keep these braids in for three to four months for the matting to take place "naturally."

Either way you do it, you'll get dreads.

THE WRONG WAY

As for those stinky, messy, manky dreads, if you really want those, you can get 'em. All you need is a wool hat or Elmer's Glue—or even worse, Super Glue. The glue method is similar to the beeswax method, only disgusting, smelly, and toxic. (You don't really want to do this, do you?) Plus, you'll have anything that was floating around in the air stuck in your dreads FOREVER. This includes, but is in no way limited to, dust bunnies, leaves, small dogs, balloons, garden gnomes, and the skin from the tips of your fingers.

The Wool Hat method can also be done with a wool sweater, wool socks, or a sheep. Take any of the aforementioned and rub it in circles on your head. You may need assistance if you are using a sheep. Your hair will begin to knot and furl after a while, and you will be able to separate the knotted hair into dreads, and as a bonus, conduct electricity. The W.H. method hurts like hell, itches like crabs, and looks like shit. Fun!

A few words to the wise: Your new hairdo is a sponge—no, better yet—it's a bath mat. It will attract dirt, odors, and even critters, so make sure to keep your head clean. The fatter you make your dreads, the longer they will take to dry after getting wet, which means you're in for a soggy, dank center, and a grandma's-moldy-basement smell. Fat dreads will also trap any hair products you use, so know that if you decide to dump strawberry hairspray all over your hair, in a couple of months you'll be attracting fruit flies to your locks.

SING-ALONG MARIJUANA MUSIC

*Well, I stand up next to a pot plant/
I chop it down, make a new strain.*

*Well, I stand next to a pot plant/
I chop it down, make a new strain.*

I pick up all the tiny pieces and start to bakin'/ Might even smoke this new Mary Jane.

—JIMI HEMPDRIX

Whoa, let the pot beat down upon my face/and bongs to fill my dream.

I am an ingester of both smoke and space/very high I have been.

—DREADS ZEPPELIN

*I see a brown bud and I want it painted green/
No dirt weed anymore, I want them to turn green/
I see the growers trim their plants in different rows/
I have to turn my head until my dankness shows.*

—ROLLING STONED

—GREEN SABBATH

*Oh, where have you been, my green-eyed bud?/
Oh, where have you been, my darling young one?/
I've smoked in the alley of four dirty Fridays/
I've slept and I've ate on five measly dollars/
I've stepped on and broken my best friend's one bong/
I've been out in front for two hours still waiting/I've driven 2000 miles to get my buzz on.*

-BOB CHILLIN'

I am an herbalist.*

*Don't know how to grow/
but I know how to get it/before they destroy the delivery boy/
'Cos I am an herbalist.*

-SEXED PISTILS

Sitting on a mushroom/waiting for the Man to come.

Corporation sellout/stupid pricey Mary.

*Dude, you been a lazy boy/
you let your hair grow long.*

*I am a pothead/
they are all potheads.*

I am the stoner, goo-goo-g'joob.

-THE WEEDLES

*Every toke you take/every deal you make/every bong you break/
every joint you take/
I'll be watching you.*

-THE PIGS

*The frat threw a party at the county jail/
The funk band was there and they began to inhale/
The band was jumpin' and the joint began to roll/
You should've smelled what was inside their glass bowl.*

-ELVIS "POT REFERENCE" PRESLEY

STONER SPORTS

CONSIDER YOURSELF THE OUTDOORSY
TYPE? LIKE TO PLAY SPORTS
AND SMOKE POT? HERE ARE SOME WAYS TO PLAY YOUR FAVORITE
SPORTS IN STONER STYLE, WITH NEW REEFER RULES.

KICKBALL, BASEBALL, AND SOFTBALL

Take a base, take a hit.

Steal second, do a shotgun.

Round all bases, cash out the bowl.

FLAG FOOTBALL

Grab one flag, take a hit.

Grab both flags, take two hits.

Take down the quarterback,

take down a joint.

SOCCER OR VOLLEYBALL

Score a goal, score a hit.

Block a goal, unblock the pipe
(and take a hit).

Assist a goal, share a joint.

HORSESHOES AND CROQUET

Knock someone out, get smoked out.

Hit the pole, hit a bowl.

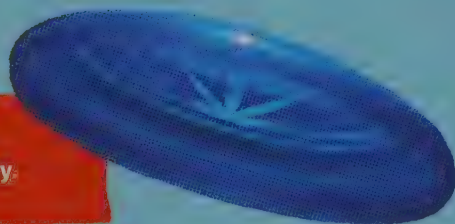

GOLF AND MINI-GOLF

On the green, hit the green.

In the hole, smoke a bowl.

FRISBEE GOLF

Smoke continuously.

HOW TO BLOW SMOKE RINGS

BLOWING SMOKE RINGS IS A LOST ART FORM and a great way to show how super bored (or super bonged) you are in social situations.

The key to blowing smoke rings is to inhale the smoke without drawing it into your lungs, then keep your mouth in the shape of an "O."

From there, you can:

- STEP 1 Tap your cheek with your finger. (CHEAT!)
- STEP 2 Let the smoke escape, pushing your lower jaw forward in oblong "O" formation.
- STEP 3 Open and close your jaw in "O" formation.

HOW TO FRENCH INHALE

- STEP 1 Take a regular-sized hit off your joint, bowl, pipe, steamroller, bong, gravity bong—whatever—without drawing the smoke into your lungs.
- STEP 2 Open your mouth and allow the smoke to come slowly out of your mouth by slowly closing your jaw. Inhale the smoke plume through your nostrils.
- STEP 3 Finally, exhale again through your mouth.
- STEP 4 Feel super cool.

HOW TO BLOW HEART-SHAPED SMOKE RINGS

BETTER THAN BLOWING KISSES.

Inhale and make the “O” formation as above, but this time hold your bottom lip puckered outward. You can also hold your top lip outward, but then your hearts will be upside down.

Practice makes perfectly stoned.

What came first,
the PLANT or the SEED?

BIG QUESTIONS TO PONDER WHILE HIGH

Is my glass bowl
WHITE WITH GREEN STRIPES or GREEN WITH WHITE STRIPES?

What's THE SOUND of one hand rolling?

If a POT PLANT was cut down and no one was there to trim it, can I have it?

Is TIME TRAVEL
possible,
and if so can I go back to last Friday night and stay there FOREVER?

BUD, PAPER, GRINDER

YOU'VE PLAYED ROCK, PAPER, SCISSORS BEFORE,
BUT NOT LIKE THIS . . . INTRODUCING BUD, PAPER, GRINDER.

How to play:

The basics of play are the same: Two players make one of three hand signs, revealed at the same time on a count of three, to see who wins. Each of the three hand signs represents an object that beats (and is beaten by) one of the others. Whether you are deciding who's fronting the cash for this week's quarter ounce or who has to roll the next joint, Bud, Paper, Grinder is the pothead way to play.

The capabilities of each item are slightly different from their corresponding items in RPS:

BUD covers PAPER
PAPER covers GRINDER
GRINDER shreds BUD

Got it? Good! Now go settle some stoner disputes!

BUD (like Rock) is a closed fist.

PAPER is a face-down open palm (like Paper).

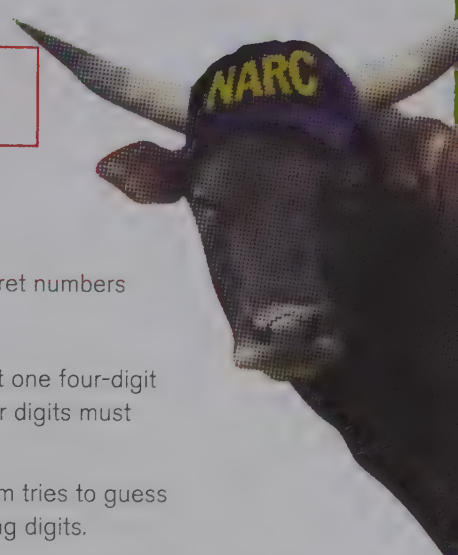

GRINDER is nothing like Scissors. Use a splayed "spider" hand as your "grinder."

HEADS AND FEDS

A.K.A. BULLS AND COWS

A CODE-BREAKING GAME FOR TWO PLAYERS OR TWO TEAMS.

Object:

To reveal the other player's/team's secret numbers

How to play:

- 1 First, each player or team writes out one four-digit number on a sheet of paper. All four digits must be different; i.e., 1234.
- 2 Next, taking turns, each player/team tries to guess their opponent's number by matching digits.
- 3 If the matching digits are in the correct location, they are "heads." If they are in different positions, they are "feds."

So the correct response to:

Secret Number: 1234

Opponent's Guess: 4201

Is "1 head and 2 feds"

(the head is the "2," the feds are "4" and "1").

- 4 The first player(s) to figure out the other's secret code wins!

STONER EXERCISES

MAKE SURE TO CHECK WITH YOUR MEDICAL MARIJUANA PRESCRIBER BEFORE ENGAGING IN ANY PHYSICAL ACTIVITY.

To ensure that you're doing these exercises correctly, stretch, and get completely stoned before, during, and after.

BONG CURLS

Targets biceps, brain cells

Lift bong, light bowl, clear chamber, lower bong. Rinse, wash, repeat. 2-4 reps

HOOKAH OVERHEAD PRESS

Strengthens shoulders (two hits for one)

Sit on stool, take one stem in each hand, raise overhead, do the Rocky pose. 10 reps

NESTLÉ CRUNCHES

Centers on abs, munchies

Lie flat on your back, bend your knees, place Nestlé Crunch on belly, put your arms behind your head, raise yourself toward the candy bar using your abs. Try to eat it off your stomach. 20-30 reps

TRICEPS DREADLOCK PULL-BACK

Affects triceps, hair

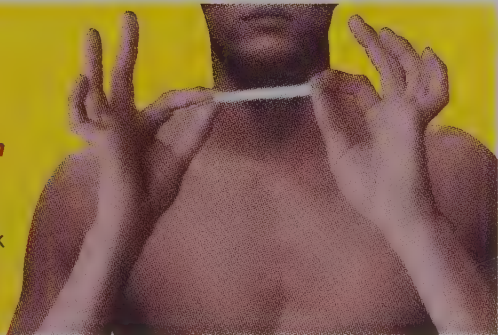

Raise arms over head, grab dreads, lift, release.

Can increase resistance by growing dreads longer, weighing them down with water, or adding glass beads, silverware, and a robin's nest to hair. 15 reps

JOINT DROP DEADLIFT

Focuses on lower back, eyes (need good enough eyesight to find a joint in shag carpeting)

Drop joint, make your knees soft. Keep back straight. Leave mind crooked. Lift. 10 reps

HOW TO

MAKE AN ORIGAMI STASH BOX

STEP 1

Choose your favorite magazine cover (High Times, Cat Fancy, Guns and Ammo...) and remove it from the magazine.

STEP 2

Fold the bottom left corner over so that it is even with the opposite side of the cover, leaving some overhang at the bottom.

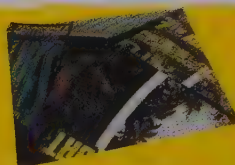

STEP 3

Cut the overhang off the bottom with scissors.

STEP 4

Unfold the cover (you will have a perfect square of paper, creased by a diagonal fold).

STEP 5

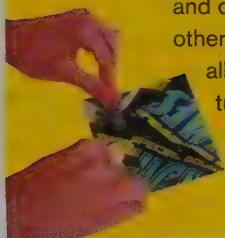

Fold all four corners into the center and leave them folded.

STEP 6

Leaving the corners folded in, fold the left side and then the right side into the middle. Now fold them out again.

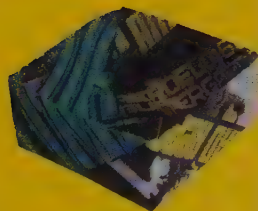

STEP 7 Turn the paper 90 degrees and do the same thing to the other sides of the paper until all four sides have been turned in, creased, and folded out again.

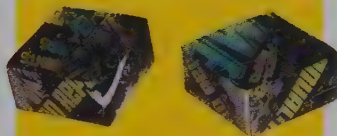

STEP 8 Open two corners across from each other and leave the other two folded in. Point one side toward you while lifting the two sides of the box upward, creating the walls.

STEP 9 Holding the two edges up, follow the creases and coax the corner folds inward, pulling the third corner up and folding it into the box. You will have to fiddle with it to get it to work. Be patient. Smoke a joint; it takes a lot of trial and error your first few times.

STEP 10
Fold the last edge in the same way.

STEP 11
Using slightly smaller paper, fold the box the same way as before. This is for the bottom of the box.

STEP 12
The top and bottom should fit together perfectly.

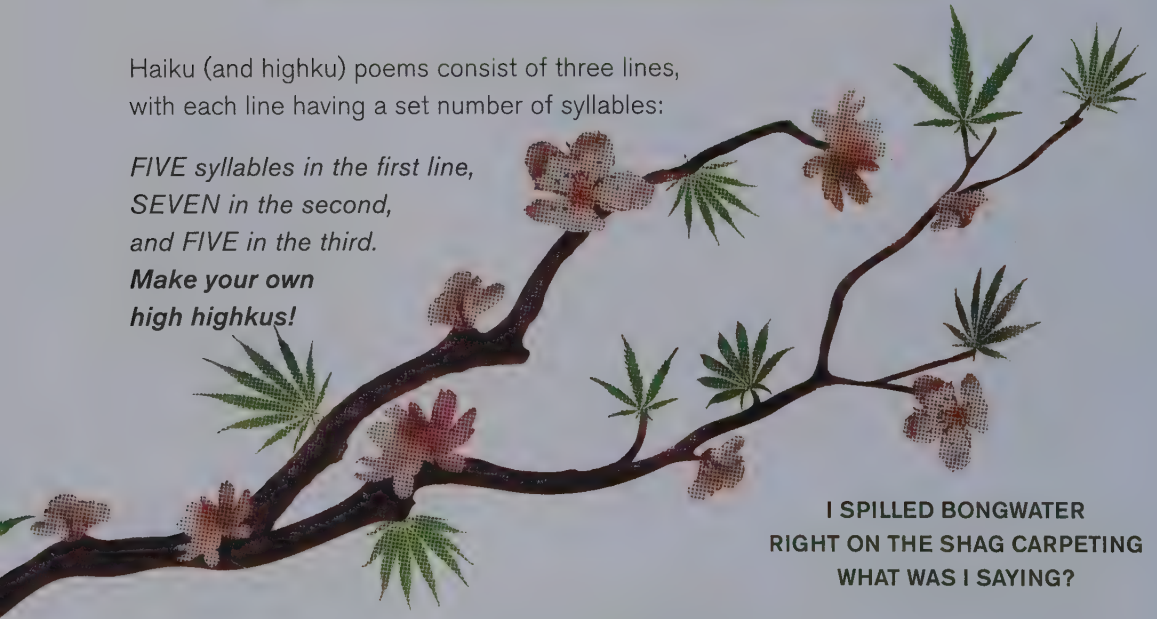

HIGHKU

THE FORM OF JAPANESE POETRY
KNOWN AS HAIKU IS PERFECT FOR STONERS!

Haiku (and highku) poems consist of three lines,
with each line having a set number of syllables:

*FIVE syllables in the first line,
SEVEN in the second,
and FIVE in the third.*

Make your own high highkus!

I SPILLED BONGWATER

WHAT WAS I SAYING?

STINKY PURPLE PLANT (5)
HOW I WANT TO SMOKE YOU UP (7)
I'LL WAIT TIL HARVEST (5)

I CAN'T STOP COUGHING
THIS POT IS EXTREMELY STRONG CAN I PURCHASE SOME?

THE SMOKE FILLS MY HEAD
I AM GETTING VERY HIGH CAN YOU PACK THE BOWL?

WATCH OUT FOR THE COPS
I THINK THEY'RE FOLLOWING US HIDE BEHIND THAT TREE.

STONER

NURSERY RHYMES

Puff, puff, pass stoner,
Smokin' treetops.
When you exhale,
Your head will get rocked.
When the joint ends,
Your head will feel good.
And that's how good stoner
Feels like he should.

Puff, puff pothead, have you any pot?
Yes sir, yes sir—I've got a lot.
Most for my girlfriend
because I'll get a smooch.
But none for that fella
'cause he's nothing but a mooch.

Hush little hippie, don't you cry.
We're gonna get you good and high.
And if your high just makes you mope.
We'll get you some better dope.
And if that dope don't get you stoned,
We're gonna get you some nice homegrown.
And if the homegrown ain't sticky,
Then you are just too damn picky.

Zongy Bongy made out of glass.
Zongy Bongy fell on his ass.
Fell off the table. Broke into two.
No more Bongy to smoke all the grass.

I'm a little nugget of yummy weed.
There are no stems and there are no seeds.
When I get all smoked up, don't worry indeed—
I've got some sisters who are the same breed.

Little Miss Puff-it sat on a tuffet, smoking her mind away.
Along came a hippie
who wanted to get ripped.
And so she passed him the J.

Jack and Jill went up the hill to smoke a big ol' bone.
Jill got high, and started to cry.
And Jack, he just got stoned.

HOW TO CONCEAL YOUR SMOKE

A.K.A. MAKING A MARIJUANA MUTE

Want to disguise that obvious pot smell wafting out from under your front door? Skip the incense and head to the drugstore (no, not your dealer).

Here are few tips on how you can make your own stealth smoking device:

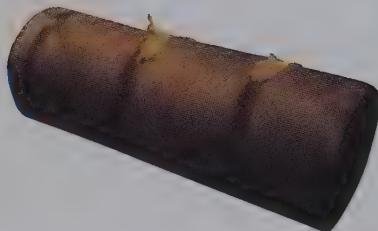

THE OL' FRIED, TRIED, AND TRUE

(Highly Recommended)

Stuff several dryer sheets into an empty cardboard toilet paper or paper towel tube. Smoke, blow in tube, smell like freshly laundered pot.

You can also try this method with an empty water bottle, 2-liter soda bottle, or milk jug in place of the cardboard tube. Just make sure to poke holes in the bottom to let the smoke escape.

THE ICY INDICA

(Like the Fried, Tried, and True but with ice)

Use an empty plastic water or soda bottle for this one, minus the dryer sheets. Put a few cubes of ice at the bottom of the bottle and poke one or two holes in the bottom. You'll drip water all over yourself eventually, but your smoke will be virtually "cool as ice."

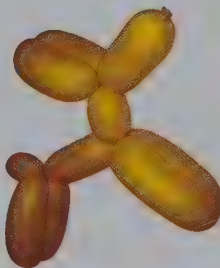

THE CHEAP AND EASY

(Less Highly Recommended)

Blow your smoke into an empty resealable plastic bag, or one that you can tie closed at the top. Throw the bags away outside, or better yet—give them to a friend.

Extra points if you use the smoke to blow up a balloon animal.

THE TOILET TRAINER

(For those notorious bathroom smokers—you know you're out there)

Blow your hit into the toilet. Flush.

HOW TO ROLL A JOINT WITH TAMPON PAPERS

IT'S 4:18 A.M., AND YOU WOULD LIKE TO GET STONED.

Your glass pipe is broken, you're out of rolling papers, you don't own a bong, and your one-hitter rolled under the sofa, which means it may as well be buried in the center of the Earth. What to do? Well, if there are tampons in the house, you're in luck! Ideally you or your lady friend (or your mom) are already using the kind with rice paper wrapping, not the bad-for-the-environment plastic kind (sorry, Kotex).

Here's what to do:

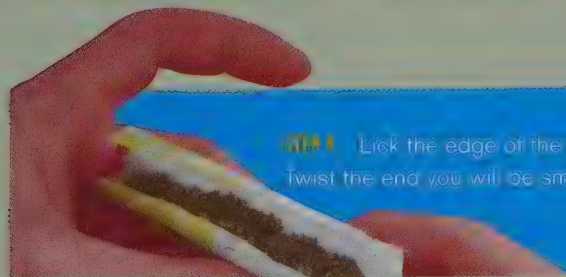

Carefully open the rice paper wrapping surrounding the tampon so you have most of the paper intact.

STEP 2 Unfold the ends of the paper so it is laid out flat.

STEP 3 Grind some pot and load the tannin paper as you would a more conventional joint.

STEP 4 Lick the edge of the paper and close the joint. Twist the end you will be smoking from a few times.

STEP 5 Light, inhale, get stoned, and celebrate that time of the month.

Note: The same basic technique may also be used to roll joints using plain rice paper or other extremely thin paper, taken from anything from Chinese lanterns to Bible pages.

GROWBOX GAME

What you need:

A pencil, another player,
a joint

Object:

Whoever makes the most
growboxes wins

How to play:

- 1 Taking turns, each player connects one dot to another, drawing one line per turn.
- 2 When a player finishes a box by enclosing it on all sides, he or she places their initial inside the box and takes another turn.
- 3 The player with the most growboxes at the end of the game wins.

NUGGETS OF WISDOM

A lesson well-learned is a lesson worth passing on to someone else. So next time your pal passes you
a wrinkly, wet joint,
show them how to roll correctly.

Tossing your roaches on the ground is not good for stoners and other living things—
it's great for them!
Keep up the good work!

I don't know if you knew this, but you can turn off the TV when you're high, and there's this whole, big world out there with tons of stuff to do in it. Especially when you're stoned. If nothing else, there are bigger TVs than yours to ogle.

Blood is thicker than bongwater.
So next time you
knock over the bong
on the carpet, call your family and have them come clean it up.

He who laughs last didn't get the joke.
Pay attention!

There is no
smoke without fire,
so stop pocketing
your friends' lighters.
Yes, they all know it's you.

It's okay to admit
you're wrong.
But wouldn't it save some stoner time to be right every so often?
Think about it.

Anything is possible as long as you don't remember what you were talking about.

Going back to your ex is not the worst thing in the world.
But if your ex quit smoking grass while you two were split
well, that is.

Try offering a peace pipe to that person you've been fighting with you bring the pipe, they bring the weed. Because what says "I accept your apology, asshole" better than that?

Whoever said
"Life is just a bowl of cherries"
never had a bowl of pot.

HOW TO HOST A GANJA-THEMED DINNER PARTY [OR PICNIC, OR FUN DAY OUT...]

Every day of the week is different: there's Munchies Monday (which we're still hoping to get Hallmark involved in), Weefer Wednesday, Fun Day Sunday...each day has its own ideal theme, including the perfect food and drink, music, and weed components. Here are seven tried-and-true, green get-togethers to help you get through the week.

MUNCHIES MONDAY

Theme: Monday is actually a great night to host a party, especially when it's reefer-related. You've made it through the first work or school day of the week, and this calls for a little low-key celebration. Munchies Monday should be pretty informal—think “college dorm room”—and if you're in a college dorm room, congratulations, you're already halfway there. The key to Munchies Mondays is to employ the tapas strategy of serving a variety of foods on small plates, but instead of having these plates feature foods from Spain, they should showcase the cuisine of a country much closer to home called Local Convenience Store.

Food and Drink: Buy several bags of chips, cookies, and fruity-flavored snacks (mmmm, gummy bears...) and arrange them in small portions on small plates to be sampled and shared among friends at a communal table. Microwavable morsels such as mini pizzas or bite-sized pigs in a blanket can help increase the nutritional value of the evening somewhat, along with salsas, spinach dip, or hummus served with the chips. Think in terms of a variety of flavor profiles—salty, sweet, and beyond—when choosing your munchies. Hawaiian Punch, Kool-Aid, or Crystal Light can all be refreshing and satisfying accompaniments to a Munchies Monday tasting menu. Beer is welcome, but don't overdo it. It is Monday, after all. Serve a side of water, sparkling or still, to cleanse the palate between plates.

Music: Beastie Boys “Fight for Your Right (to Party),” Andrew W.K. “Party 'til You Puke,” Kool and the Gang “Celebration,” Black Eyed Peas “Let's Get Retarded,” anything from Oingo Boingo.

Weed: Invite each guest to do a bong hit at the door. This will be the lead-in to the most important part of the marijuana Monday dinner—the munchies. Reload, hit again occasionally throughout the meal, and keep munching.

CRUISEDAY TUESDAY

Theme: You've made it through Monday. It's day two, and the week has shifted into second gear. You've got a hankering to do...something. But what? Put out the call to friends and cruise on out of your pad to somewhere that features games of skill that aren't too serious or competitive (at least when played correctly). Text or tweet or Evite and let friends know that you'll be cruising down to the arcade, bowling alley, boardwalk, or laser tag palace and see who's around to join you. It's good to get the blood pumping, so preference should be given to anywhere featuring skee ball, whack-a-mole, ping-pong, Dance Dance Revolution, or a batting cage.

Food and Drink: Okay, so the food usually served at these places is often not super healthy, but if you're cruising correctly, you'll also be burning off some of these nacho plates, pizza slices, and chili cheese fries by jumping around, dancing, whacking, or ponging, and otherwise acting like a goofball. Stay hydrated and alternate beer (if you're drinking) with water.

Music: So here, too, you're at the mercy of the venue—in this case, music being played over the PA. But think of it as your opportunity to get into some (almost certainly) classic rock hits that can never fully be appreciated unless you're bowling. You're wearing the funny shoes, surrounded by your friends listening to Bob Seeger's “Night Moves,” and you're thinking to yourself, do I even like this song? Yes. Yes, you do. “Two Tickets to Paradise”? You're packing your bags and leaving tonight.

Weed: Smoking socially is crucial on Cruiseday Tuesday. Appoint yourself as cruise director and, if you have cars, arrange to have your friends hotbox together in the parking lot before going inside. If you are vehicularly challenged, think outside the hotbox to repurpose other small spaces such as storage closets or one-seater bathrooms. Smoke and share, then get out there and have some fun.

WEEFER WEDNESDAY

Theme: It's the middle of the week, and there's an end in sight! Friday is on the horizon, and knowing this puts you in a good mood; maybe you're even feeling a little wacky. Welcome to Weefer Wednesday, the perfect night to get silly with all your friends at home playing classic party games like charades, board games, or the games included in this very book.

Food and Drink: After two days of junk food jubilation, it's time to think healthy. Make it a green night all around by serving dinner salads or crudités (which is basically French for "veggie slices and ranch dressing"; it's also French for "sliced meat and cheese platter" so feel free to supplement the meal accordingly if there are carnivores among you). Serve with white wine or spritzers—the perfect way of saying, "Even though we are playing naked Twister, we still have some class."

Music: Any theme songs from game shows—think "Price Is Right," "Press Your Luck," even "I Lost on Jeopardy" by Weird Al Yankovic. Go carnival! Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass, Tom Jones, Gogol Bordello. Campy music, muzak music—"Merry-Go-Round Broke Down," "The Girl from Ipanema," "Spanish Flea." Try for Fantasia on acid. Opa!

Weed: Joints are a must for Weefer Wednesday. Not just that, but each guest must have their own joint, supplied by you, which they can share or smoke down themselves as they see fit. The goal on Weefer Wednesday is to get high as a kite—the more laughter, the more memorable the night. Sativas will help accomplish the giddiness. Hazes, Widows—usually anything grown outdoors can deliver the loopiness you're looking for.

Easy Ganja Butter Recipe:

Ingredients:

Butter

Ground cannabis buds

The more pot you add to the butter, the more intense the effect of your buttered-up food will be. Try 1 stick butter to 1/8 or 1/4 ounce ground cannabis buds.

Set up a double boiler if you have one. Otherwise, you can create a makeshift double boiler using two pots of different sizes: Just put some water in the larger pot—enough so that you can float the smaller pot in the water without it overflowing. Put the large pot on the stove. The water will heat up, and the butter will melt in the smaller pot while it's floating in the larger pot. That's it!

Combine butter and ganja in double boiler (or place the ingredients in the smaller pot of your makeshift double boiler).

Cook on low heat for 45 minutes, stirring frequently.

Let sit for 5 minutes.

Using cheesecloth, strain the pot butter into a large bowl.

Once it has cooled down enough to handle, squeeze the cheesecloth over the bowl to get out the remaining melted butter.

Substitute the melted ganja butter in any food that calls for butter, or let it cool to room temperature and then place it in the fridge until semi-solid. You can then use it in place of regular butter spread-like, say, on the best cinnamon sugar toast you've ever had.

TAKE-IT-EASY THURSDAY

Theme: The weekend is fast approaching so you don't want to blow your whole wad just yet. If you blow the pipes out on Thursday, you risk ruining your Friday, Saturday, and Monday morning. Take-It-Easy Thursday (T-I-E T) should quench the thirst for getting the lead out without breaking your pencil. Burn some incense. Dim the lights. If you have a lava lamp, it should be in effect. Bonus points for blacklight. Sprawl out on beanbag chairs or other pillows or cushions on the floor and relax with five to eight of your nearest and dearest pothead pals.

Food and Drink: This evening should be a little swankier than the rest of the week, and the menus should be homecooked, and consist of heavy, comfort food with gravies or sauces. Think hearty and filling: rich quiches and casseroles, lasagnas, shepherd's pies, and mac and cheese. Dessert is not a must, but bonbons or a box of melt-in-your-mouth chocolates will do nicely.

Music: On T-I-E T, Miles Davis is king. Try the classic albums Kind of Blue, In a Silent Way, and Sketches of Spain.

Weed: If you can procure some hash, this is the night to fire it up, ideally served in a joint passed among everyone—two or three puffs each. If there is no hash, a communal joint or vaporizer of a heavy indica will set the mood nicely. Sour Diesel, any of the Kushes, or Chemdog will induce the proper tranquility. You and your friends will wake up the next morning feeling refreshed, energized, and ready for the weekend. Toke up and, just like Calgon, let the high take you away.

FREAKOUT FRIDAY

Theme: Hooray! The weekday is through! You have two days to kick back on the La-Z-Boy and do a whole lotta nothing. But more relevant to tonight, you have two days to recover. Enter Freakout Friday, the destination of which is not a bad trip, but a very pleasant ride. The means of transportation? Pot food! Prepare this meal by cooking with cannabis for each and every dish. Use this easy pot-butter recipe (see pg. 65) and substitute it for boring, normal butter in a variety of your favorite of dishes, from appetizers to dessert. Some of our favorites include garlic bread and sautéed mushrooms to start, followed by rasta pasta, and finishing with tiny bite-sized cannabis cupcakes. It's usually a good idea to serve plenty of water, juices, and fruit for refreshment between courses, along with weed-free goodies to share once the munchies kick in. Serve the courses at a leisurely pace and take your time between each one. Eat apple slices, throw on a Simpsons episode. Allow your companions to enjoy the journey to their final landing place for the evening: their beds.

How to Roll a Blunt:

Bite the tip off a blunt.

Lightly moisten the outside of the cigar and slice one side of it lengthwise with a knife or razor blade.

Gently remove the tobacco from inside the cigar with your finger. Also remove the outer tobacco layer, leaving only the inner layer.

Lick the inner layer to help smooth it out.

Place your weed evenly inside the curl and roll it carefully, licking the end of the wrap and sticking it to the side of the blunt.

Run a lighter up and down the sides for a few seconds to firm it up (or stick it in the microwave).

Spark it up.

STOP-OFF SATURDAY

Theme: Party time! Excellent! Everyone is in a tizzy to get dizzy, and tonight, we paint the town green. Your house is a stop-off along the way to more exciting places to go and see. Think of it as a launch pad. It can also serve as a safe harbor or meeting place later in the evening and between stops. If someone loses the rest of the pack, or needs a refresher, or snaps a sandal, or it starts to rain, your place can be the predetermined meeting spot. In the pre-cell phone era, a meet-up spot was always determined before forging ahead. An S.O.S. host is ready for any major- or minor-scale invasion, whether it be pre-party, in the thick of things, or after closing time.

Food and Drink: An organized dinner may be difficult on a Saturday night, so it's better to have a quick meal to serve as a base for your big night out. Keep it easy, but make sure it will sustain you for a few hours. Invite the girls over to get gussied up together and order some sushi, or have the pals come over and watch the game with a few pizzas before leaving for the club. Have plenty of Red Bull on hand to keep things moving and help you out the door.

Music: Think "rave" here. High-energy techno, hardcore house—The Chemical Brothers, Prodigy, Felix Da Housecat—and music you can mosh to—Slayer, Judas Priest, Metallica, and in memory of Dimebag Darrell, lots and lots of Pantera. Don't forget the after-party tunes, too! Go mellower, but still keep that good buzz—Dr. Dre and Snoop, Eminem, Jay-Z, The Roots, Digable Planets, Deee-Lite. It's on 'til dawn just like a leprechaun.

Weed: S.O.S. calls for some good-ass weed. Destination weed. Shotguns from blunts are a sure-fire way to amp you up, and who doesn't love a good blunt? Blunts are a delicacy. Only very few people can roll one right on the first try, so make sure that you practice before darkness falls.

FUNDAY SUNDAY

Theme: You don't want to stay out late tonight, but you don't want to stay in all day, either. Sure, you woke up at noon, but you want to enjoy what's left of the day. FunDay Sunday is all about getting out of the house with friends and having a picnic in the park. Take blankets, Frisbees, cards, picnic baskets, red-and-white checkered tablecloths, napkins, utensils, weed—anything you think you might need for your next few hours outside. Find a nice shady, secluded spot, take off your shoes, run your toes in the grass, roll some grass with your fingers, and enjoy the gift of FunDay Sunday.

Food and Drink: Today is all about potluck. Everyone should bring something to nibble on and something to drink, all in quantities to be shared: olives, grapes, crackers and hummus, bread and cheese, potato salad, sandwiches, easy desserts, and snacks.

Music: Bring a boom box or portable music system and a little Bob Marley, who can make Sunday or any day a little more fun.

Weed: Have everyone bring their own one-hitter (or supply as host). Since you can't smoke publicly (yet), you'll have to get those tokes in quickly and on the D.L. to fully enjoy the magic of FunDay Sunday.

MISS AUGUST GOD'S GIFT

CENTERFOLD DATA SHEET

NAME: God's Gift

PARENTS: O.G. Kush & GrandDaddy Purple

MEASUREMENTS: 75% indica, 25% Sativa

STATUS: ☐ Married ☒ Divorced ☒ Available—but only by clone)

AMBITIONS: I'd really like to lower my appearance fee from $55 an eighth to $40, but I'm so high in demand right now that it'd be a bad career move on my part. Also, I'd really like to get into acting. (Seth Rogan, are you listening?!)

TURN-ONS: I don't need all the attention most other ladies require. I'm pretty low maintenance. But I do have to say there's something sexy about a man who talks to his plants.

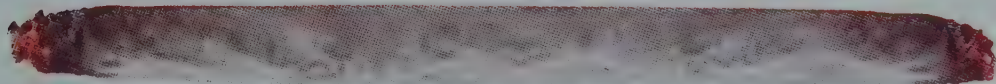

TURN-OFFS: Guys who have pre-harvestation problems. I just can't get down with that. Don't I ever get a chance to finish?

MY DREAM JOB: Working with the president. I'd love to spend every day in the White House. And I have many great ideas about how to get some money back into the economy.

WATER OR NUTRIENTS: Water FAVORITE SPORT: Ultimate Frisbee

WHAT I WEAR TO BED: Lots & lots of trichomes. And purple.

PARTY BOOBYTRAP

Laughter is the best medicine—right after marijuana. So if you can't take a joke,
don't take a joke.

There are several distinct personalities living in each and every one of us . . . and goddamn it, no
one has a lighter?!

If you're getting stoned and opportunity knocks,
ask yourself: "Do
I actually know anyone named Opportunity?"
Better check the peephole.

A cigarette is a pinch of tobacco wrapped in paper—fire at one end, fool at the other.
A joint is a pinch of weed
wrapped in paper—fire at one end and my very best,
most good-looking, nicest,
most generous, and giving friend in the whole wide world at the other.

The first place
to look for whatever you lost is always the last place you remembered what you ate for breakfast
yesterday.

It's not the lighter but the matches that burn
you.

The best things come in small packages.
Except for nickel bags on birthdays.

There's no place like home, but
Jamaica, Canada, and Amsterdam are GREAT—ever been there?

Don't put off until tomorrow what you can smoke
today.

NUGGETS OF WISDOM

If you lie down with dogs,
make sure they aren't the drug sniffing type.

There's no there,
only here. Which I put over there,
somewhere.
Right?

CANNABIS CAROLS

POT SONGS YOU CAN LIGHT THE YULE LOG AND BOWL TO.

“HOLD IT IN”

(Sung to the tune of “Jingle Bells”)

Lighting up a doob, on a very rainy day
Inside it's super dank, outside it's really gray
We're almost out of weed, we need to make it last Let's be smart and skip the rules and screw the puff-puff-pass

Oh—hold it in, hold it in, hold it till you cough
Expand your capillaries till you finally get off
Hold it in, hold it in, hold it till you cough
Hold it in so fucking long you finally doze off

“BLOW THE SMOKE”

(Sung to the tune of “Deck the Halls”)

Blow the smoke into this dryer sheet
Fa la la la la la la la
Hide the smell so I don't get heat
Fa la la la la la la la

Smoke this joint before we get caught
Fa la la la la la la la
Now use the mute, oh crap—I forgot
Fa la la la la la la la

"O POOR COUCHLOCKED STONER"

(Sung to the tune of "O Come, All Ye Faithful")

O poor couchlocked stoner
Why'd you smoke so much weed?
I can't believe that you held it in your lungs so long
I've never seen you cough so
I've never seen you cough so
I've never seen you cough so
I've never seen you cough so fucking hard

"LATE NIGHT MUNCHIES"

(Sung to the tune of "Silent Night")

Late night munchies, something crunchy
Something sweet, without meat
Too late to order pizza right now
I'm going to start eating Puppy Chow
Let's just make mac and cheese
Let's just make mac and cheese

"I'M FUCKING HIGH"

(Sung to the tune of "Joy to the World")

I'm fucking high! Everything's great
I'm going to get laid
I've got great pot that smells so good
It makes me feel just like it should
And we're gonna smoke it all
Yeah we're gonna smoke it all
Yeah we're gonna smoke it, we'll smoke it all

"MY CHEAP-ASS SLEAZY DEALER"

(Sung to the tune of "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer")

My cheap-ass sleazy dealer
Always tries to rip me off
His prices are always changing
And his pot just makes me cough

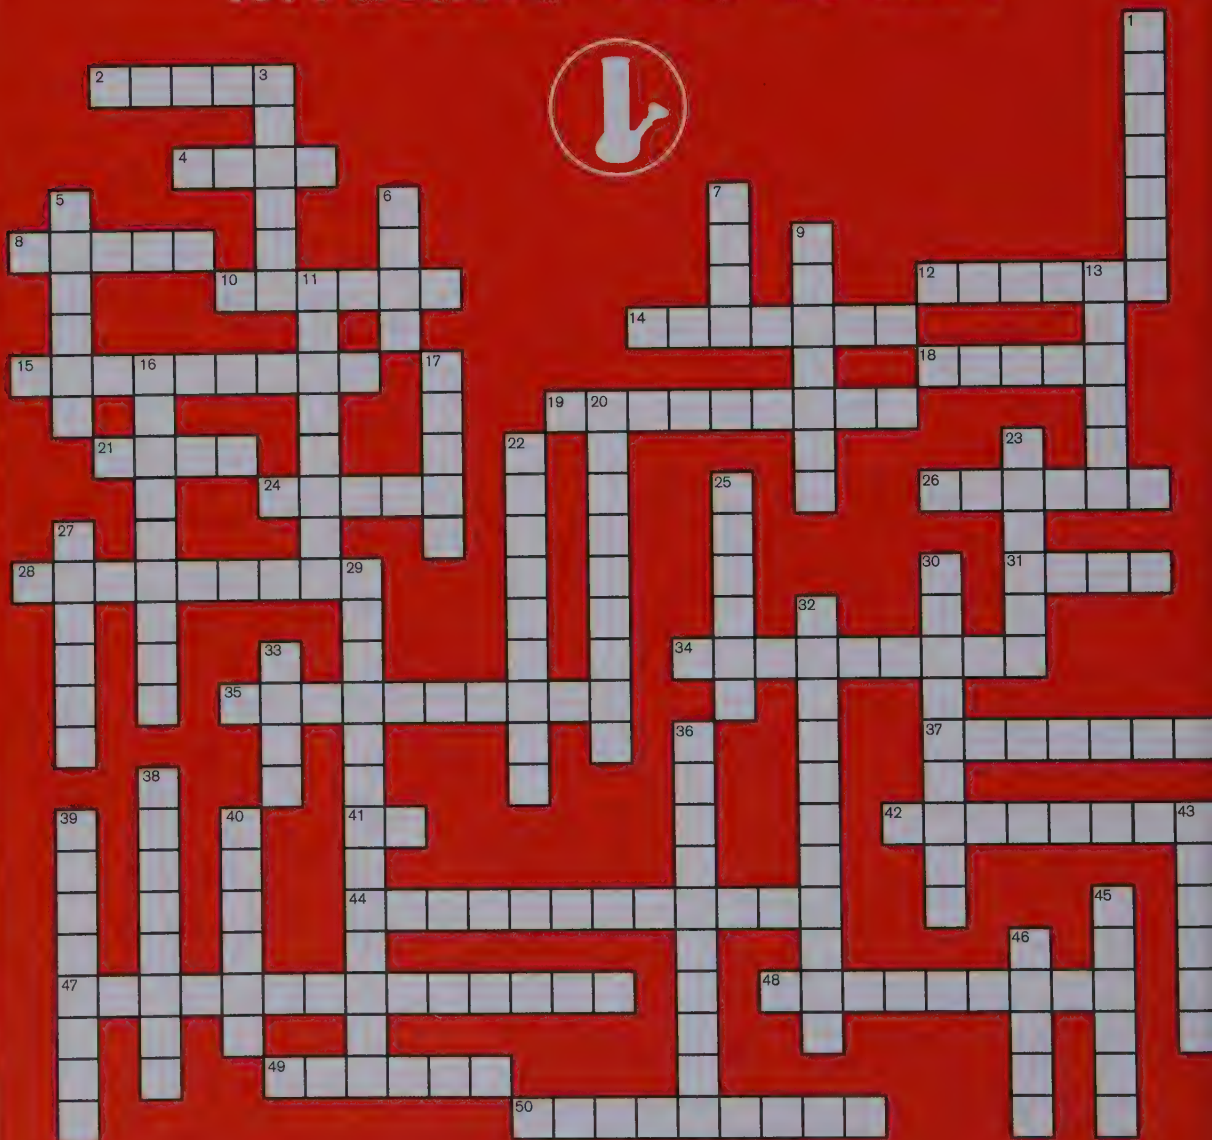

I've even tried new dealers
But their shit is just too whack
So I just have to break down
And call my sleazy dealer back

Then I had an epiphany
When I was really high:
"Dealer, if you just deal pot
Why do you own 15 yachts?"

WOW!

Then it all sort of hit me
Like I had just caught the joke
My cheap-ass sleazy dealer
Gets his money dealing coke!

CREATE YOUR OWN STONER CODE

Tired of your friends' too lamely obvious text and voicemail messages ("Hey man, can you score me some, um, trees?" or "Yo, want to come over later for a walk on the green carpet?")?

It's not like pot doesn't make you paranoid enough without thinking the cops are gonna crack this not-so-secret code. Break free from the greenspeak and make your own code, unintelligible to anyone but you and your pals. Here's how:

1. ALL SMOKING SESSIONS will now be called whatever your mother's favorite television show is.

*"Yo Mike, I got DANCING WITH THE STARS on over here.
Don't miss out!"*

"Who loves ya, baby? KOJAK in tha house!"

"What are you doing right now? Well forget it, 'cause we're getting ready to catch some MURDER SHE WROTE over here."

2. WANTING YOUR DEALER TO COME BY will be referred to by using the first sport you played as a kid.

"Wanna play TEE-BALL at four o'clock?"

"SOCCER in Madison Park at noon. Meet at the fountain."

"FOOSBALL'S going on in the basement of my grandma's place in 10."

3. QUANTITIES will now be known as bra sizes.

AA cup is a joint, nickel bag, or dime bag

A cup is an eighth

B cup is a quarter

C cup is a half

D cup is a pound

DD is a smuggling operation

"My life sucks. All I can get are the DOUBLE As."

"I'm happy with a B CUP."

"Sweet! Here comes the plane chock-full of DOUBLE Ds!"

CANNABINOID, CANNOTABINOID,
CANNABINOID, CANNOTABINOID,
CANNABINOID, CANNOTABINOID.

LET THE DIE CONTROL YOUR HIGH

HAVING TROUBLE MAKING A DECISION?

Put your fate, or at least your afternoon, in Jah's hands.
All you need is one die and six options.

Step One:

Give each option for what you might do next a number from one to six. For example:

1 = TAKE A HIT

4 = TAKE A NAP

2 = TAKE TWO HITS

5 = ORDER TAKEOUT

3 = GO FOR A BIKE RIDE

6 = PET THE CAT

Step Two:

Now roll the die, and whatever number it lands on, you must now do the corresponding action.

ZODIAC ZTONER ZIGNS

Okay, so you already know whether you're an uber-sensitive Pisces or a batshit-crazy Scorpio. But as a lover of all things weed, how does your star sign translate?

ARIES

(March 21–April 20)

Friendly and excitable, an Aries is a fun and interesting person to smoke a joint with. They'll stick to the two-hit rule, allow others to join in the circle without being greedy, and make you laugh the whole doob-through. But ash too quickly or mess up the rotation, and the Ram's quick temper will soon rear its ugly head. You may lose circle privileges for a while or, at worst, get an Aries tongue-lashing about your bad toker etiquette.

TAURUS

(April 21–May 21)

Taking a few tokes with a Taurus may become a daily ritual due to the Bull's dependability and generosity. Just don't flake out on a session. Tauruses are very sensitive and might take your memory lapse personally or hold a grudge for a long, long time. And in return, their stubbornness over your lack of regard may reshape itself in the form of their own laziness. They may call off the once-a-day toketest because it's too much work to keep going.

GEMINI

(May 22–June 21)

Getting high with a Gemini sounds like a good idea in theory: they're witty, clever, and very high energy. They've got lots of friends and can always bring a good time to the party. But beware of a Gemini stoned. The other Twin comes out and the bragging, showy side begins. A Gemini loves to talk about themselves. And if you get into any kind of debate with them, you'd better bring Wikipedia—Geminis need to always be right, and they'll even embellish the truth about the size of a joint if not flat-out lie just to show how much they know—and how much you don't.

CANCER

(June 22–July 23)

Cancers sure love their pot. It gives them a chance to sit back and enjoy the day without having to think too much. Which is something Cancers don't do too well—think. If you give a Cancer too much time to contemplate, their dark side can come through. Then enters the moodiness. They ain't called Crabs for nothing. An awesome 420 session one day can be a game of "call me back, prick" the next. And if you mention the slacking, prepare for some hard-shelled defensive action.

LEO

(July 24–August 23)

The regal Lion can be one of the best signs to smoke with that there is. They'll always make sure you're stoned enough, and if you aren't, they'll go out of their way to make sure you get super high somehow, anyway, no questions asked and no expectations in return. But don't forget to say "thank you" or let them know just how much you appreciate their hard work. A Leo can be offended and hurt easily. They try so hard to make others happy that they tend to get neglected themselves.

VIRGO

(August 24–September 23)

If you need to organize a party, get a Virgo to do it. Just make sure you get 'em high first. Virgos are great at getting things done, but they tend to overanalyze everything and need to take a break more often than they're used to. Grass is good for the Virgo's soul. It helps break through the Virgin's quiet side, getting them to trust their instincts—not just the facts. And, when you're too blazed to remember where your keys are, they'll always remember the last place they saw them.

LIBRA

(September 24–October 23)

Smoking a bong with a Libra can be a wonderful experience. They are good listeners, great caretakers, and best yet, they are easygoing and quite balanced in their actions and thoughts. Libras have the great ability to soothe high-tension situations (i.e., meltdowns) and put everyone at ease (i.e., stoner party foul). The Scales are always weighing the options of every situation. But if you happen to break that expensive Jerome Baker bong of theirs, all bets are off. Libras are very superficial and put plenty of importance on material things. They love to show off their wares and might make you spend the dough on a new, if not better, bong.

SCORPIO

(October 24–November 22)

You can trust a Scorpio to keep an eye on your stash. While they might pinch from it, they'll always make sure to pay you back—sometimes even with better grass than the stuff they were holding for you. But if you trust them once, they'll expect you to trust only them every time, so if you ask someone else to keep your weed safe, the Scorpio is going to get pissed off. It's not that Scorpions are moody so much as they are control freaks who like everything done their way. Smoking Mary Jane definitely helps cool their stingers.

SAGITTARIUS

(November 23–December 22)

Sags are natural-born weed smokers. Their good nature and optimistic outlook goes hand-in-hand with getting high. They've got good heads on their shoulders and even better pot in their pockets. They enjoy the finer things in life, without being showy. But don't count on them watering your plants. These Archers, while spot-on with every other aspect of their lives, can be extremely flaky. To them it's the tedious act of watering a plant that bores them. They aren't lazy, just determined. And if your green garden has no direct effect on them, it might just wither under their care.

CAPRICORN

(December 23–January 20)

These old Goats are the least likely member of the zodiac to get stoned. They like to be in complete control of their surroundings, and are very cautious when it comes to trying anything new. That's not to say that Capricorns aren't fun—it's just that they are more interested in sticking with what they know. They're very distrusting and inhibited. They make awful dealers and even worse growers. Pot makes them paranoid and skittish. These Goats need to smoke a certain type of weed—usually sativa or anything in the Haze family.

AQUARIUS

(January 21–February 19)

The Aquarian is always looking for the greater good, and sometimes they lose themselves along the way. Which makes them a good partner for a 420 session, as it gives them an excuse to stop and smell the skunkweed. Curious about everything without being nosy, Aquarians are good neighbors and friends to have. Though they're very open about their conquests and adventures, they might not be the best people to let know you have a few plants growing in your closet. But if you accuse them (even rightly so!) of being a narc, they'll never admit they did anything wrong.

PISCES

(February 20–March 20)

One fish, two fish, red fish, highly sensitive fish. Pisces are the humanitarians of the zodiac. They are communists incarnate—everyone is one and the same, on an equal plane, and no one is better than anyone else. A Pisces will take a bullet for you, have your back during a fight, water your plants, hide your stash, and basically do anything you need done. They are very loyal and smart, but they take people's actions too much to heart, giving themselves away more than they should. Pothead Pisces are to be treated well. Save your best grass for them. They deserve it and will give you nothing but the best in return.

HIGH CARD HIGHER CARD GAME

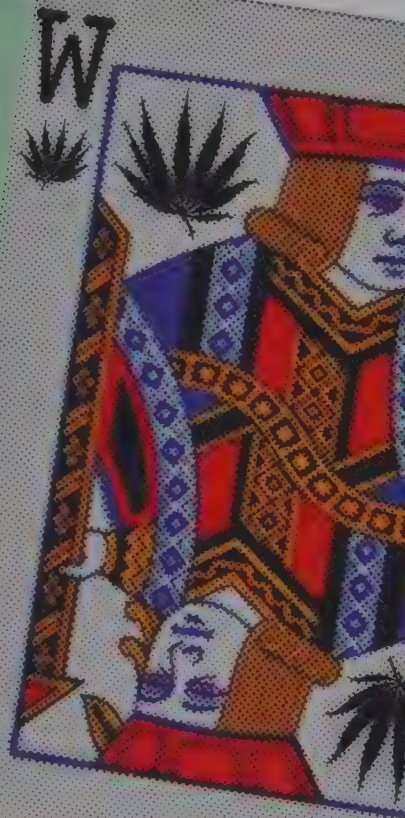

WANT TO GET STONED?
WANT TO GET REAL STONED?

You will need:

A deck of cards, some weed, and some friends.

How to play:

- 1 Pick a dealer and have them shuffle the cards and deal one card face up to each player, including the dealer.
- 2 In each round, the dealer will deal each player another card face up, going in turn around the circle.
- 3 Before each player is dealt a new card, they must guess whether the next card will be higher or lower than the last card they were dealt. If they're wrong, they lose one point and have to take a hit. If they're right, they get one point and have to take two hits.
- 4 The game continues until you run out of weed, get too stoned to reshuffle the cards, or want to take a time-out to order a pizza.
- 5 Loser pays.

TOP 10 STRAINS

FOR GETTING REALLY HIGH

THIS IS THE STUFF OF LORE. SO WE PUT IT IN POEM FORM.

Number 10 on my list has to be tried, I promise you'll be satisfied
Even if you only have a speck,

I highly recommend some good TRAINWRECK.
It feels like dough and smells like grass,
and always puts me on my ass.

Dear ol' 8 sends me straight to heaven,
I love my AK-47.

8

Named after a gun, yes
but that's okay—
I'll still smoke it any day.

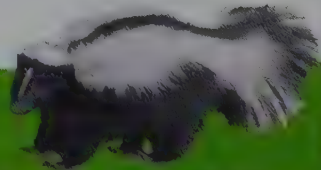

Ten strains were all meant just for me,
to get so stoned that I can't see.

When I want to get so very high,
I check my list and call my guy.

Hopefully he's got in stock
one of these top ten strains that rock.

I start from 10 then go down low to my favorite strain the good Lord grows.

9

Number 9 will give you spunk, just try a hit of SUPER SKUNK.
It smells so sweet I think I fared Super Skunk gets me retarded.

7

Seven strains in and that's just fine.

I'd like to introduce CINDERELLA 99.

Its high's so strong, I'm on its jock.

It gets me so stoned,

I've got couchlock.

6 Number 6 is the top, and this is the berry.
Try smoking some fine BLUEBERRY.

It's sticky sweet and tastes like candy.
I smoke it like alcoholics drink natty.

Five down and five to go,
now's the time for WHITE WIDOW.
Oh, what bliss! Oh, what a strain!
I can't remember my first name.

5

I'm down to 4—hey don't push.
Make your way to O.G. KUSH.

4

The original gangster, yessiree.
I took one hit and lost my keys.

It seems like I've been on number 3 for days. That's what happens when you smoke
SUPER SILVER HAZE.

3

It's because of this strain that I've been led to a fulfilling life as a pothead.

2

Two more to go, I won't try to weasel. I'll sit here and smoke
some SOUR DIESEL.

My eyes have never been redder.
I've never been such a stoner.
This weed is so fery, I've got a boner.

1

Number 1 on my list she's the queen of all green.
THE MIGHTY LADY, G-13

To find this strain,
you'll need lots and lots of luck,
even though weed's not legal,
it's grown by government bucks.

And that's the list, my stoner friend,
now go forth and find your favorite ten.

It's with this I say goodbye.

Have a great life and an even better high.

Q: How many stoners does it take to change a lightbulb?

A: THREE. One to notice the bulb needs changing, and two to argue over who needs to buy the new bulb.

Q: Why'd the stoner cross the road?

A: THE GRASS WAS GREENER ON THE OTHER SIDE.

Q: Why do stoners carry lighters?

A: BECAUSE LIGHTERS CAN'T WALK.

Q: What do you call a crab that tokes?

A: A PINCH HITTER

Q: What kind of weed does a blonde stoner smoke?

A: DOPE

Q: What did one stoner vampire say to the other stoner vampire?

A: IS THAT YOU COFFIN?

Q: What did the pothead write on all his holiday cards?

A: MERRY JUANA!

A plant cloned itself, but the clone turned out to be incredibly rude. Eventually, the plant got sick of its clone and pushed it over a cliff.

The next day, the plant was arrested for making an OBSCENE CLONE FALL.

A stoner went to see his doctor for a regular checkup. The doctor checked him out and gave him some bad news:

"There are two things wrong with you," he said. "You have cancer and your memory's shot."

"Well," said the stoner, "at least I don't have cancer."

STONER SAYS

PRETTY MUCH THE SAME AS SIMON SAYS,
BUT THIS TIME YOU'RE STONED.

- 1 First and foremost, you should all smoke a joint.
- 2 Then choose a person to be "Stoner."
- 3 Have the rest of the players get together either standing up or sitting down in a straight line so they are able to clearly see Stoner.
- 4 Stoner calls out an action, beginning the phrase with "Stoner says," or not.
- 5 Everyone should do any action that is introduced with the phrase "Stoner says," and NOT do any action that does not start with the phrase. So if Stoner says, "Stoner says raise your hands," everyone should raise their hands.
- 6 Anyone not following Stoner will be out.
- 7 If Stoner does NOT say "Stoner says" and someone completes the action, that person should be pointed to and laughed at. They will also be out.
- 8 Last person remaining in is the next Stoner.

PLAYING TORNADO

THIS IS A SMOKER'S GAME TO PLAY DURING A THREE-OR-MORE-PERSON SESSION.

How to play:

- 1 When passing around the joint or bowl, take as many quick inhalations as there are people in the circle.
- 2 Hold your smoke until the joint or bowl comes back to you.
- 3 Whoever cannot hold their smoke is "out," and as the number of smokers gets whittled down, each player can begin to fuck with their teammate(s), taking longer, drawn-out hits, hoping the other(s) will cough.
- 4 The game continues until the joint is done.

BUILDING A REVERSE GRAVITY BONG

Gravity bongs have been around since Sir Isaac Newton discovered that what goes up, must come down—well, at least since 2-liter bottles and gravity crossed paths, anyway.

But, if it goes up, it must go down, too. Enter the reverse gravity bong; a.k.a. the “flow” or “waterfall” bong. It’s a gravity bong without the water outtake system. And I know you want to make one. So away we go....

STEP 1 You need to get yourself a SoBe glass bottle. Yes, the bottle with the lizard. A SoBe bottle is best for this type of bong since it has a small, thin, dimple-like indent, which you will need to create the drain hole. You can also use a 2-liter plastic bottle for this, but isn't it more fun to smoke out of a clean glass bong than some boring plastic bottle?

STEP 2 Get a hammer and a small screwdriver and hit that dimple in the bottle square on, knocking the dimple in so you have a tiny little hole. Have the tiny little hole? Good. Now keep chipping away at the hole GENTLY until you get a bigger hole, one that you can cover with your finger easily in case things start getting messy.

STEP 3 Put all that aside and start making the bowl out of the aluminum cap. First, remove that little rubber seal with a pair of pliers. Next, puncture a hole for your stem-and-bowl slide to fit into the aluminum cap. Seal the hole with the slide with hot glue, tacky-tack, or electrical tape. If you don't have a stem/bowl setup, use a socket instead. Seal it like you would the slide.

STEP 4 Load your bowl (finally!).

STEP 5 Fill the water bottle, using your finger to plug that smaller-than-finger-size hole.

STEP 6 Screw the cap back on the bottle.

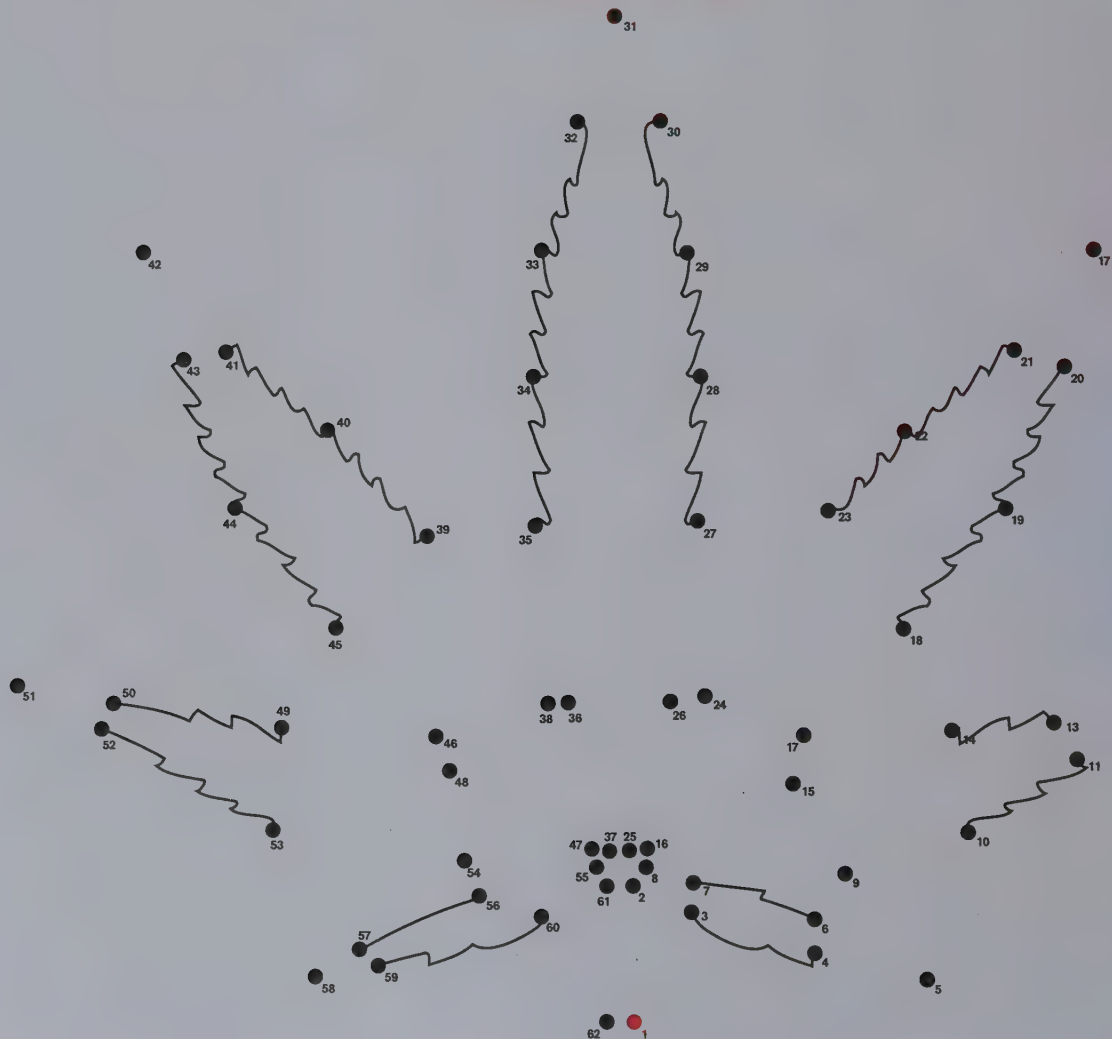

STEP 7 While lighting the bowl, release your finger from the hole, letting out the water. The bottle should (hopefully) fill with smoke. If it does not, try to put more tack around your slide/socket/bowl.

STEP 8 When all the water has left the bottle, unscrew the top and take a giant hit.

STEP 9 Be extremely stoned.

A.B.C.s OF STONER SLANG

A'DAM:

Short for Amsterdam, the stoner Mecca of the world.

BRICK WEED:

Mass quantity grass. Mexico has "mexi," the United States has "schwag," and Canada has "beasters." It's all crap, but it'll get you high, so who's to complain, really?

CASHTRAY:

A car ashtray filled with cashed joints.

DRO:

Hydroponically grown pot.

ELBOW:

Body parts always become measurements. A foot = a foot. Two fingers of gin, an ankle of ketchup... an elbow of pot means "pound." Get it, lb? Elbow. Stoners = brilliant!

FISH BOWL:

Like hotboxing a car, but with a goldfish instead of a speedometer.

GREEN HIT:

A fresh, clean hit. For brown hit see cash tray or resin.

HEAD STASH:

A dealer's pot, which they won't sell you, no matter the price.

IRIE:

How you feel after getting high. How you look after getting high is a whole other word that starts with a "g" and ends with an "oofy."

JOINT:

As in, do you have one? 'Cause it would be a lot cooler if you did.

KIEF:

The yellowish crystals separated from the plant. Save these.

L:

Slang for a blunt. Don't believe me? Just ask Blunt Blunt Cool J.

MOOCH:

Anyone whom you never see other than when you're smoking a joint.

NARC:

If you don't know what this is, you very well may be one.

O.G.:

As in O.G. Kush. Though some say "organically grown" or "original genetics," it's actually original gangster.

PUFF PUFF PASS:

Q.P.:

A lot of pot. If you have this lying around you are a dealer, a doctor, or my boyfriend.

RESIN:

The ass of your grass.

STONER:

You.

THC:

What's getting you high right now.

UNCLE:

As in "the man from U.N.C.L.E.," as in "the united network command for law enforcement," as in "people you want nothing to do with." See narc.

VAPORIZER:

HASH: THE GAME

THE FORTUNE TELLER GAME OF THE '80s WITH A TWISTY.

HASH is similar to its predecessor MASH, which stands for Mansion, Apartment, Shack, and House.

HASH is less concerned with what dwelling you'll be residing in than with what type of green you'll be smoking, 'cause that's the shit that really matters. But HASH (Hydro, Astro turf, Schwag, Homegrown) tells you not only what you'll be smoking, but with whom, where, how, and how many times a day.

How to play:

This should be played with two players, though you can play it by yourself. Though you'll probably be more likely to cheat that way.

- 1 Choose four options for each of the questions 2 through 5.
- 2 Choose one player to draw a spiral. The person whose fortune is being told tells the drawing player when to "stop."
- 3 Count the number of lines from one side of the spiral to the other and use that number to count through the full list of items (including the HASH options).
- 4 Cross off the item that corresponds to the number of lines counted in the spiral, then continue down the list and cross off the next item that corresponds to that number of lines.
- 5 Continue through the list. When you get to the end, return to the top of the list to continue, skipping the crossed-off items as you go.
- 6 When you have only one item left in each of the 5 questions, circle it. That is your future.

THIS FUTURE BELONGS TO:

YOUR NAME HERE

1. What type of grass will you be smoking?

- 1 Hydro
- 2 Astro turf
- 3 Schwag
- 4 Homegrown

2. Who will you be smoking with?

CONNECT FOUR TWENTY

CONNECT FOUR IS A STONER CLASSIC.

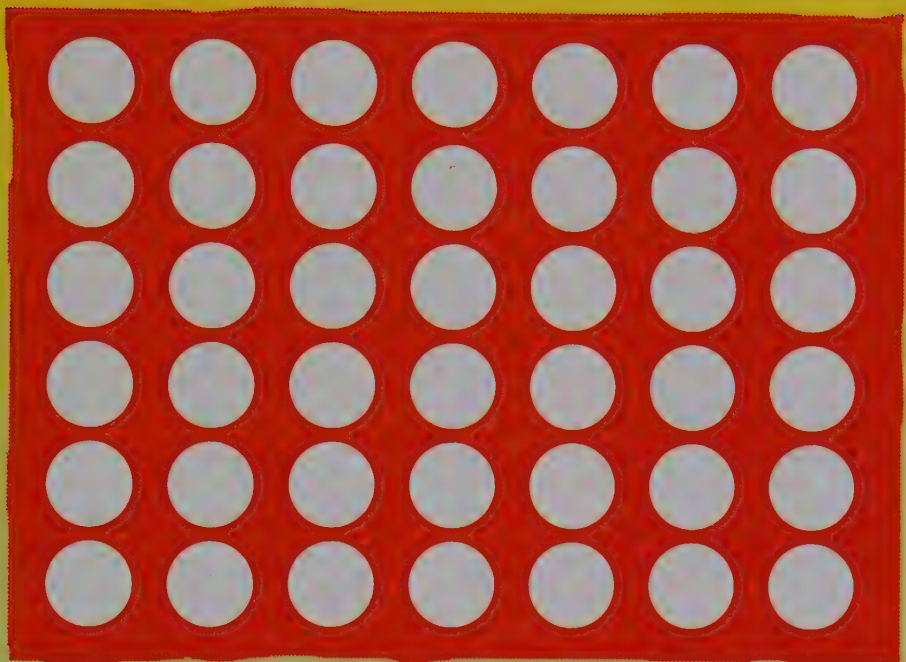

How to play:

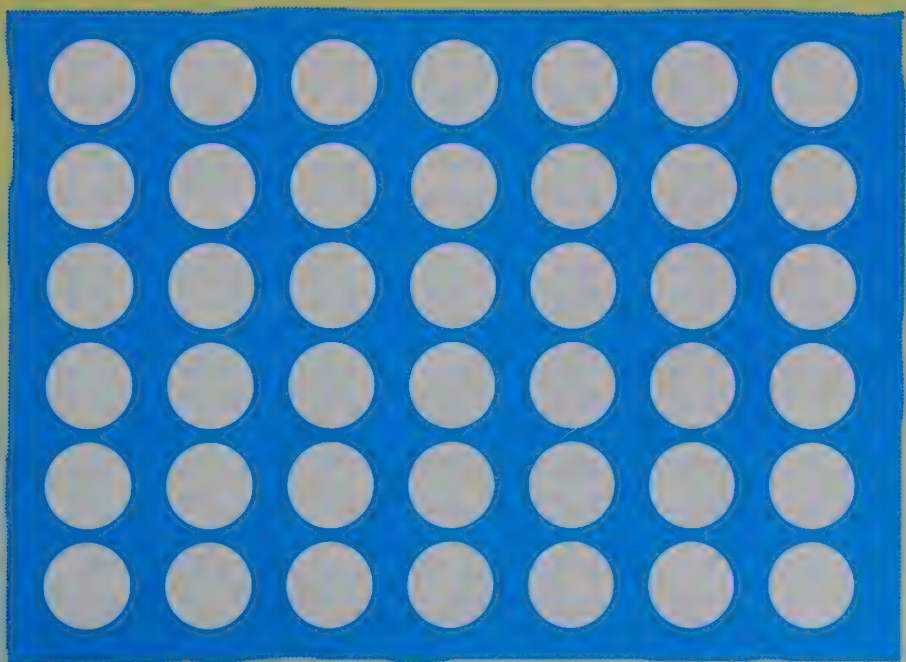

- 1 Use these boards or draw your own (seven columns and six horizontal rows of circles).
- 2 Two players each take turns drawing a pot leaf (or a bong) into one of the circles, trying to connect four pot leaves (or bongs) in a vertical, horizontal, or diagonal line.
- 3 Winner is the first to connect four! Pretty sneaky, sis.

HOW TO SMOKE “SHOTGUN”

The concept of “smoking shotgun” began during the Vietnam War, when SOLDIERS USED AN ACTUAL, UNLOADED SHOTGUN AS A PIPE, blowing smoke into a recipient’s mouth via the mouth of the barrel and the muzzle. We do not recommend this. We do, however, recommend sharing smoke.

WITH A FRIEND

You can create the blowback of a shotgun while smoking a joint or blunt by carefully placing the lit end into your mouth and keeping your lips clenched—but not crushing—the paper around the cherry. The recipient forms a channel with their hands for the smoke to go into their mouth or simply receives the smoke mouth-to-mouth in the form of a kiss as the first person exhales.

You can also deliver a kissing shotgun without holding the joint in your mouth by simply taking a hit and releasing the smoke into the recipient's mouth via an open-mouthed kiss.

BY YOURSELF

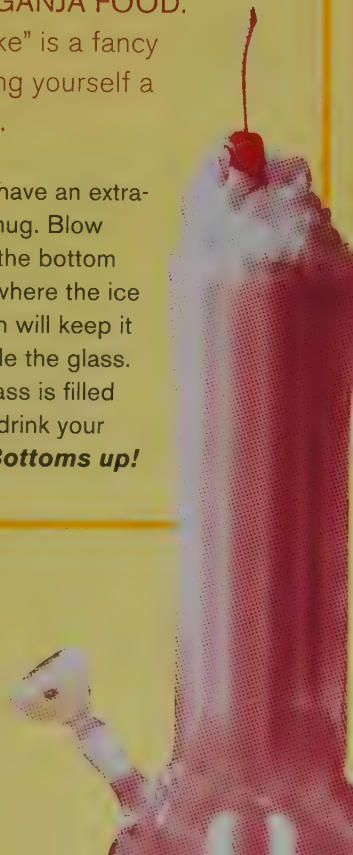

"Giving yourself a shotgun" sounds dirty. And it can be, depending on how filthy your hat is. Place the lit end of the joint in your mouth as you would in the blunt/joint shotgun method above and hold a hat over your nose and mouth using both hands. Blow the smoke into the hat while simultaneously inhaling the fresh smoke through your nose.

MARIJUANA MILKSHAKES

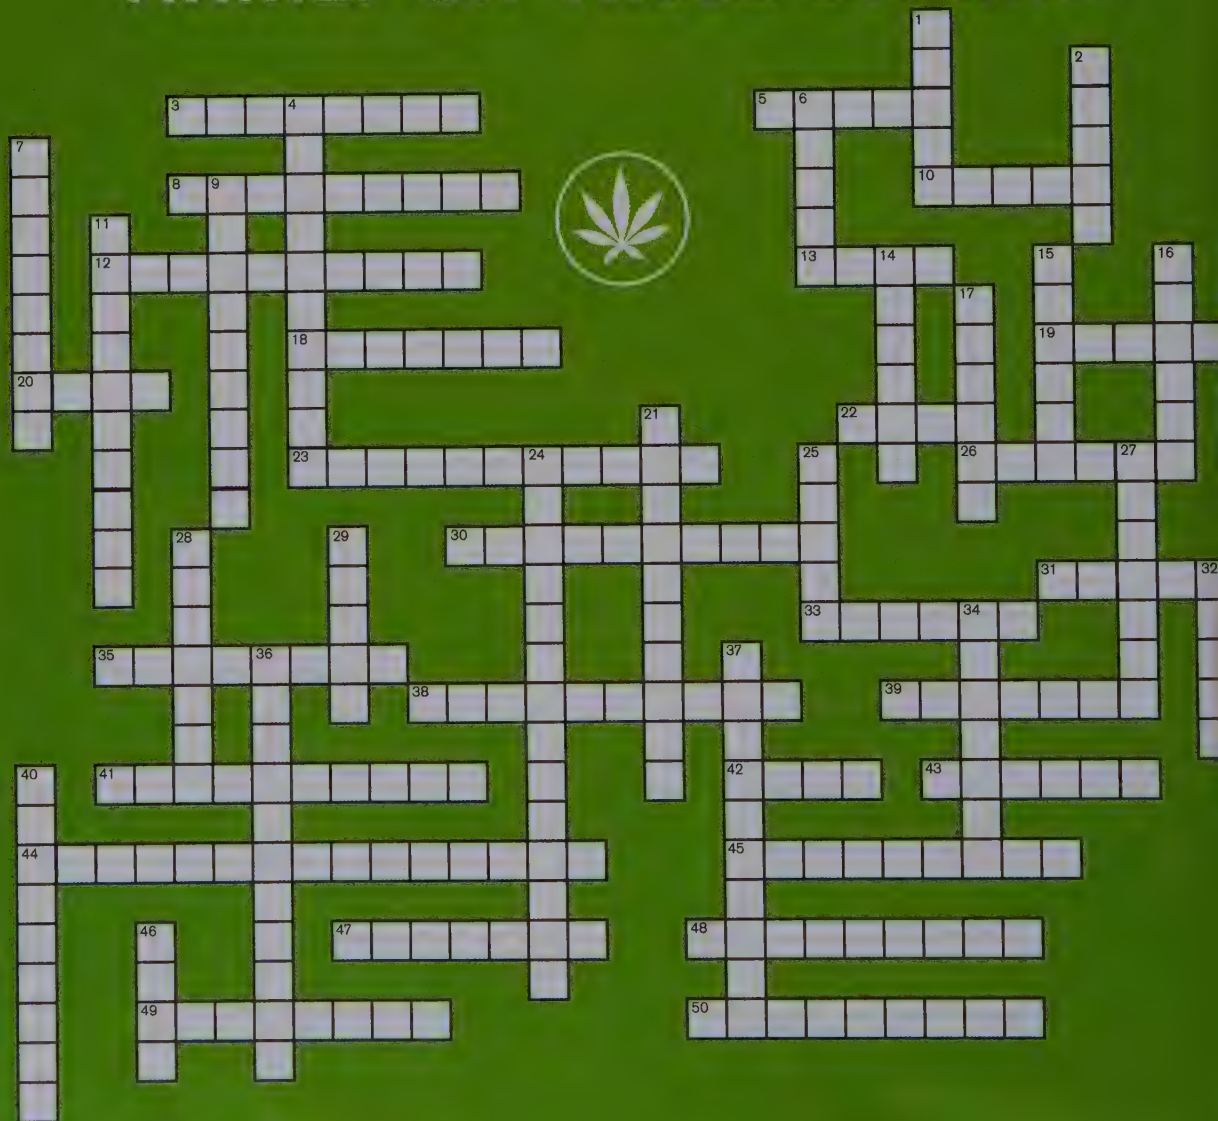

NO, NOT GANJA FOOD.

A "milkshake" is a fancy way of giving yourself a shotgun hit.

You need to have an extra-frosty beer mug. Blow your hit into the bottom of the mug, where the ice condensation will keep it trapped inside the glass. When the glass is filled with smoke, drink your "milkshake." Bottoms up!

MEET THE DEALER

URBAN LEGENDS AND POT FOLKLORE

IF YOU LOOK INTO A MIRROR AND SAY "MARY JANE" ALoud THREE TIMES, A WOMAN WILL APPEAR IN THE GLASS AND GIVE YOU SOME.

Years ago there was a robbery in Scranton, Pennsylvania. A grower's entire stash was stolen along with his pet dog, Hendrix. While the police were taking pictures of the crime scene, they happened upon a set of numbers written out using the stems of the victim's crop. The mysterious numbers read: 4914. The police department's best cryptogram detectives tried to figure out what the numbers could mean, but to no avail. Then one day, a new recruit picked up the photo upside down. He discovered that the numbers spelled out the word "HIGHE".

In Amherst, Massachusetts, back in 1968, a dealer was making a delivery on foot down Main Street when he slipped on a branch and lost his weed down a steep hill. Ever since then, if you drive down Main Street smoking dope in your car, the dealer will appear in the passenger seat and try to smoke with you.

One night in Denton, Ohio, a guy met a very hot girl at a party who got him really stoned with some killer weed. He hung out with her all night, but then started to get queasy and blacked out. When he woke up the next day, he was lying in his tub surrounded by seeds and stems. A message was taped to his body that read CALL YOUR DEALER NOW! The woman had robbed him of all his pot.

A stoner couple was smoking pot and making out in their car on an abandoned road in Joliet, Illinois, when an emergency broadcast came over the radio reporting that a convict had escaped from the Joliet prison. He was described as having pliers for a hand. The guy, who was extremely stoned and therefore extremely paranoid, wanted to leave the desolate area and get him a home. But the boy, high and horny, wanted nothing of the sort. The girl kept saying that she heard noises around the car, but the boy paid no attention. Finally, after smoking their last joint down to a nub and fed up with the girl's whining, the boy started the car and they sped off. When they pulled into her driveway and the girl got out of the car, she fainted. A pair of pliers was attached to the outside car handle. Inspired, the boy grabbed the pliers and used them as a roach clip to finish off his joint.

HOW TO

SMOKE OUT OF EVERYDAY ITEMS

SODA CAN

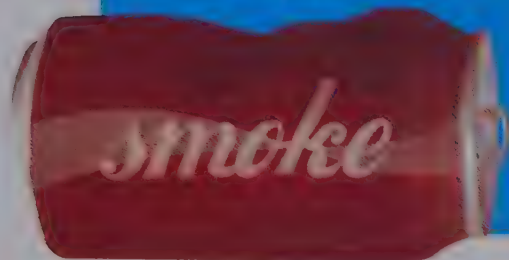

STEP 1: Empty the can and set it on its side.

STEP 2: Push the can down on one side and punch a small hole in the middle of the indentation (to act as the bowl).

STEP 3: Punch some small holes in the bottom of the can to ventilate.

STEP 4: Poke a small hole on one of the sides for your carb.

STEP 5: Put the pot in the indent and smoke from the mouth of the can.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

STEP 1: Take any hard fruit or vegetable (i.e., apple, pear, carrot, potato, pineapple, turnip, etc.).

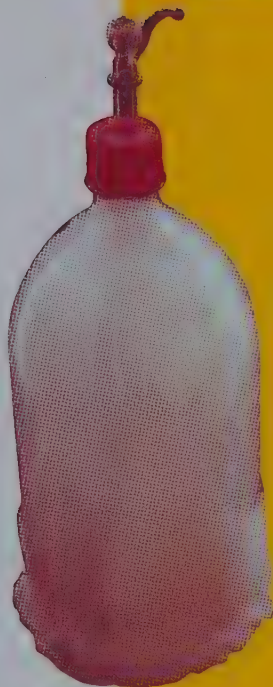

STEP 2: Create a hole for your mouth using a small knife or pen. (If you're already stoned, use the pen.)

STEP 3: Make a small hole for the "bowl" that is perpendicular to the mouthpiece.

STEP 4: Make a carb by poking a small hole through the food and connecting with the bowl.

STEP 5: If you don't want fruit or vegetable ash in your mouth, you can use a screen.

BAFFLE BONG:

- STEP 1 These are hard to come by, but easy to make.
- STEP 2 Get a 2-liter bottle, a plastic grocery bag, and a bowl.
- STEP 3 Cut off and remove the lower half of the bottle.
- STEP 4 Cut off and remove the handles from the plastic bag.
- STEP 5 Tape the open end of the bag around the open end of the bottle.
- STEP 6 Puncture a hole in the cap for your bowl; replace the cap.
- STEP 7 Push the lower half of the bag into the bottle and light the bowl.
- STEP 8 Let the bag fill with smoke.
- STEP 9 Remove the cap and set aside.
- STEP 10 Smoke out of the open neck of the bottle. Get baffled.

BOWLING BALL:

- STEP 1 Find your dad's bowling ball.
- STEP 2 Put a screen into any one of the three holes—this is now your bowl.
- STEP 3 Put your grass in the bowl, use one of the holes for your mouth and one for your carb.
- STEP 4 Smoke. If you get caught, don't tell your dad you heard it from me.

HOW TO HOST A MARIJUANA TASTING PARTY

Ever been to the High Times Cannabis Cup in Amsterdam? If so, you know how much fun it is to get together and get high while trying all the different strains. (If you haven't been, you should go! See cannabiscup.com for details.) Until you go (or go back), the next best thing is to host a toker tasting party in the comfort of your own home.

First, take stock of your resources. How many different strains can you assemble among you and your friends? If you're all using the same dealer, you may be limited in variety. If this is the case, invite some friendly stoners from outside your core group—even invite your dealer—to help ensure a wider array of ganja goodness. Have each attendee bring a different strain (or several, if they're feeling generous). Each entry should be about three grams of pot (a bit more than a dimebag, but less than an eighth).

Next, appoint someone who will collect the entries, assign them random code names (numbers, letters, breeds of dogs...), and present them each to the group one by one to sample and score—first as buds, then with each strain rolled into its own marked and labeled joint. Allow the judges to pass, sample, and resample freely, making sure that everyone gets at least one hit of each strain. Use this handy scorecard template to rank the various factors, add up the scores, and announce yourselves all winners for having spent such a lovely evening together.

SCORE CARD

QUALITIES	JUDGING CRITERIA	SCORE
Smell	Describe the scent (e.g.: fresh, green, moldy, mellow, harsh, chemical) Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Stinky [yuck!]; 10 = Stanky [hells yeah!])
Touch	How does the bud feel? (e.g.: sticky, smooshy, crumbly, rough, leafy, dank) Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Ashy; 10 = Cotton balls on a bunny's tail)
Appearance	How does the bud look? (e.g.: green, purple, brown, dark, sparkling, covered in spider mites) Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Dirty; 10 = Crystals like Superman's crib)
Taste	How does it hit your palate? (e.g.: harsh, smooth, minty, irritating, like butter, like nails) Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Ouch!; 10 = Tastes like a rainbow)
Burn	How does it light? (e.g.: quick and gone, slow and steady, is this thing on?, call the fire department!) Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Fwoosh; 10 = Controlled burn)
High	What's the stone like? (e.g.: heavy, airy, hard to focus, giddy, introspective, have you ever really looked at your hand?) Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Bummer; 10 = Awesome!)
Overall	Would you smoke this again? Rate from 1 to 10 (1 = Pass it on; 10 = Pass it over here!)

Acknowledgments

Natasha Lewin would like to thank the great people at HIGH TIMES for surrounding her in such a fun and creative workplace; Chronicle Books for the wonderful opportunity; Alex Glass for being the whip-cracker when I'm too tired; Steve Mockus who does everything on Mockus Time but still gets it done; Mary McEvoy for having always having my back; Craig Coffey for his highly-coveted modeling skills; Dan Skye for being such an awesome supporter of me; Dance Guy for absolutely nothing; Rebekah Harris for inspiring me in everyway possible; SN for being a rad woman; Scott Nath and Mary Jane Gibson—two terrific friends with terrific ideas (usually). And, of course, huge, GIGANTIC thanks to the absolutely fabulous Henri and Kathleen Lewin who taught me everything I know. Except how to make a reverse gravity bong. (See pages 112–113 for that knowledge.)

Everyone else, thank you for just being you and not some other creep who is not you but looks exactly like you. You know who you are.

Special thanks to MK and EK.
I love this place!
